29th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE ASSC
June 30th to July 3rd, 2026
Santiago de Chile

DEAR COLLABORATORS AND INDUSTRY PARTNERS

The 29th Annual Meeting of the Association for the Scientific Study of Consciousness marks a historic milestone — the first ASSC meeting ever held in South America. Hosted in Santiago, Chile, this edition aims to foster global collaboration and inclusion, bringing together leading voices from neuroscience, philosophy, psychology, and artificial intelligence.

ASSC29 will offer a rich scientific program alongside opportunities for cultural exchange and dialogue. As consciousness research continues to expand across disciplines, we invite sponsors and partners to join us in supporting this landmark event. Together, we can advance the understanding of consciousness and strengthen the global scientific community.

ABOUT THE ASSOCIATION FOR THE SCIENTIFIC STUDY OF CONSCIOUSNESS

Founded: 1994

Purpose: To promote rigorous scientific research and cross-disciplinary dialogue on the nature, functions, and mechanisms of consciousness.

Members: Over 600 active members worldwide from neuroscience, cognitive science, psychology, philosophy, AI, and related fields.

Annual Meetings: Rotating globally between Europe, North America, Asia, and now, for the first time, South America.

ABOUT ASSC29

The 29th Annual Meeting of the ASSC (ASSC29) will take place in Santiago, Chile, from June 30 to July 3, 2026, hosted by the Association for the Scientific Study of Consciousness, with collaboration of the Latin American Brain Health Institute (BrainLat) at the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile.

The conference will feature keynote lectures, symposia, workshops, poster sessions, and networking events designed to advance the scientific understanding of consciousness. Participants can expect high-level academic presentations and vibrant interdisciplinary discussions in an inspiring Latin American context.
